

Marriage & Consecrated Life

Husbands, love your wives
as Christ loved His Bride
the Church.

Ephesians 5:25-26

"This is my body, given up for you."

The Body is a sacrament of the Person.

“Eschatological Sign”

Religious life is the “flowering of the Baptismal Consecration”

THREE VOWS:

- Poverty
- Chastity
- Obedience

“This is my body, given up for you.”

The Body is a sacrament of the Person.

Marriage, Family & the Sacrament of Matrimony

THE FAMILY

The Basic Unit
of Society

The purpose of the institution of Marriage is to provide for the official and public foundation of a Family.

The TWO purposes of Marriage:

- 1) The good of the spouses
- 2) The procreation & education of children

Be Fruitful...

- "Fecundity is a gift,
an end of marriage,
for conjugal love
naturally tends to be fruitful."
- "For just reasons, spouses may wish to space the births of their children."

CCC 2366-2368

"Matrimony" means

"to make a mother"

The FAMILY is CENTRAL

1. Strong families create a strong SOCIETY
2. Strong families need strong MARRIAGES
3. Strong families create strong and happy INDIVIDUALS

Marriage must be

- 1) Heterosexual
- 2) Indissoluble
- 3) Exclusive
- 4) Stable

"This is my body, given up for you."

The Body is a sacrament of the Person.

The faithful love of marriage images God's own way of loving - husbands and wives learn to love as God loves

Marriage under the regime of sin-

...Their union has always been threatened by discord, a spirit of domination, infidelity, jealousy, and conflicts that can escalate into hatred and separation. ...
According to faith the disorder we notice
so painfully does not stem from the nature of man and woman, nor from the nature of their relations, but from sin.

CCC 1606-1607

In his mercy God has not forsaken sinful man. The punishments consequent upon sin,
"pain in childbearing" and toil
"in the sweat of your brow," also embody remedies that limit the damaging effects of sin.

CCC 1609

After the fall,
marriage helps to overcome
self-absorption, egoism, pursuit of one's own pleasure, and to open oneself to the other,
to mutual aid and
to self-giving.

CCC 1609

Minister

- The husband and the wife confer the Sacrament on each other by
  1. Giving their consent to be married to the other
  2. Receiving the other's consent to be married
- Latin Rite: priest must witness the conferral of the sacrament. (can. 817)
- Eastern Rite: priest must witness and bless for validity of the sacrament. (can. 828)

CCC 1623

Matrimonial Consent

- Exchange of consent / "exchange of vows"
- Is INDISPENSABLE; it is what MAKES the marriage
- The baptized man and the baptized woman who exchange consent must be doing so in a manner that is completely free
  - Free from all coercion/ constraint (fear, sorrow, pressure from others; free from ignorance)
  - Free to marry by natural and ecclesiastical law

CCC 1625 ff

An ANNULMENT is NOT a “Catholic divorce.”

Annulment –the root of the word is “nullus” —meaning “no,” or “none.”

An annulment is an official Church declaration (after thorough investigation of a case) that there is NO marriage bond, because something prevented the bond from being formed at the time they attempted to contract a marriage.

Matter & Form

- The form of this sacrament is the man and woman conferring the sacrament upon each other (through the words that express the exchange of consent/vow) as witnessed by the Church.
- The matter of this sacrament are BODIES of the spouses (“This is my body, given up for you”)—
“the consent that binds the spouses together finds its fulfillment in the two ‘becoming one flesh.’”

Effects

- “From a valid marriage arises a bond between the spouses which by its very nature is perpetual (indissoluble) and exclusive.”
- “...established by God Himself in such a way (as) can never be dissolved.”
- “...grace (to) help one another attain holiness in their married life and in welcoming and educating children.”
